

Personal Mention

C. E. Hartley, of Gladstone, was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday. He had driven down in his Ford and was looking up business for a Loan Co. he represents. He has an irrigating enterprise on the head of Ute Creek, small but very attractive.

LOST: Crocheted baby hood at or near Church-Wednesday. Find or please leave at Variety Machine Works.

Rev. Hearn learned Tuesday thru a letter from his wife who is visiting in the East that his only son, Robert is suffering from a case of Scarlet Fever. Quite naturally he is worried about it. You can bet on that young scout catching everything that's goin'.

Polaskie says -- We will have afternoon showers regular to Aug. 1 with hail in spots -- Fog in the morning and hard rains in the afternoon Aug 2-3, and soaking rains, cloud bursts and water spouts to follow -- and he knows?

Fred Brown was stepping higher than usual Saturday. The best of the rain fell on his 300 acres of beans and changed the prospect from a minimum yield to a probability of a big crop. It easily meant $$$$ up in the thousands to him.

Miss Gladys Judy returned to Alburquerque Monday to resume the duties of her position there after a vacation visit with her parents here.

Miss Bessie Wood and Will Dunn have entered into a partnership to beat the game in the finish. Will lost his wheat and beans in the hail storm and they will now prepare the ground and drill in millet on it with the chance of a big crop of feed largely in their favor. That is the right spirit and here's wishin them success in the venture.

The five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wagner, of Mills died at the hospital in Dawson from the effects of a kick by a mule. Her injuries were such that recovery was impossible. The funeral was held at Mills, Monday.

Joe Vigil came down from Dawson Sunday to visit friends in Roy, Joe was denied the privilege of serving his country as a soldier on account of his age so he went to Dawson and is working at his trade.
